Meeting with Bazar Management Committee

Take initiative to make Balukhali Bazar Committee more active in ensuring peaceful coexistence.

meeting discussed peaceful coexistence between the Rohingya and host at Balukhali bazar human rights and the existing problems between the two communities in the bazar and what needs to be done to resolve them. In addition, steps have been taken by the committee to take more effective measures to ensure peaceful coexistence in the bazar.

"It's important to build awareness, not just in certain people, but in everyone. And the people who have been affected by the Rohingya crisis need to be made aware of peaceful coexistence as well as other assistance. We want peaceful coexistence until repatriation. There is no other way. And more people from both communities should continue to be aware of this."

Amir Ali-Religious Teacher, made this comment on 25th may in a meeting of project review
