Like every month, the monthly mentor coordination meeting was held in Lalmohan and Borhanuddin Swaswa upazilas this month as well. The discussion of the mentees present in the meeting brought up the saying that "Only one mentor can show all the members of a club to seek the truth. If he is honest, idealistic and benevolent, then he can involve all the members in the good work of his area. He can do various developmental works including cleaning the area and its educational institutions, helping the needy people, making wards free of evictions along with all his club members. The mentor will discuss changes in the adolescent's behavior or any teaching points at each monthly meeting. Discussion Learners will want to know what they learned from today's discussion. Before the next monthly meeting, they will prepare an action plan or action plan and write it in the form of a resolution on the next page of their signature in the register. Next month will review who has been able to implement what. In this way we will move our club forward.

Teenagers in our society are involved in various types of anti-social activities day by day. They come from home on the pretext of coming to school-college but instead of coming to the educational institution they hang out with their friends. I recommend COAST Foundation and PKSF to conduct such activities on a regular basis. If you call me for any such work, I will fully cooperate.
